v.

RESPONDENT

ORDER DISMISSING CLAIM WITHOUT PREJUDICE

On August 18, 2023, the Copyright Claims Board (Board) issued an Order to Amend Noncompliant Claim notifying the claimant that the claim did not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations and would be dismissed unless an amended claim was filed by September 18, 2023. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2). No amended claim was filed in the time allowed. Therefore, the Board dismisses the claim without prejudice and closes this case. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

Dismissal without prejudice means that any allegations that are not barred may be raised again by filing a new claim, unless there is an agreement with the respondent to the contrary. Communications from the claimant to the Board suggest that there may be such an agreement, but that issue is not currently before the Board.
