United States Copyright Claims Board

Say It Visually, Inc.

CLAIMANT

v.

Jorge Roque and America's Real Estate Brokers

RESPONDENTS

SECOND ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board finds that your claim, as amended, still does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is properly amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file a second amended claim by March 8, 2023. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. There is no additional filing fee for an amended claim. If you file a second amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. However, if your second amended claim also is found not to comply, the Board will dismiss the proceeding without prejudice. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B); 37 C.F.R. § 224.1\(d\).

To make your second amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1\(c\)\(2\). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your amended claim before you file it again. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your claim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your claim. There is no character limit so please be as detailed as possible.

Copyright Infringement – Infringing Activity

Your copyright infringement claim does not present any facts to state how one respondent, Jorge Roque, used your exclusive rights in the allegedly infringed work without permission.

Copyright law grants exclusive rights to copyright owners. These include the right to reproduce, distribute, and publicly perform the work, and to make a “derivative work,” which is a work based on the original work. Someone who does one of those activities without the copyright owner’s permission may be infringing the copyright, unless they have a legitimate defense. More information about exclusive rights is available on page 3 of the Starting an Infringement Claim chapter of the CCB Handbook.

Although your amended claim is compliant with respect to America’s Real Estate Brokers, it does not include any allegations of infringing activity by Mr. Roque and, therefore, it is not compliant with respect to Mr. Roque. You mention him only where you name the respondents. Because your amended claim alleges infringing activity by “the respondent,” in singular form, it appears wholly directed at the other respondent, America’s Real Estate Brokers. Your allegations do not offer any detail about Mr. Roque, his relationship to America’s Real Estate Brokers, or his use of your work in a way that would infringe any exclusive rights.

If you submit a second amended claim, it must include facts that more fully explain how both respondents infringed your allegedly infringed work. To address this issue, your second amended claim must include facts in the “Describe the infringement” section that describe acts infringing your copyrights, specifying how the respondent engaged in the infringing activity. You should be as detailed as possible, setting forth what the respondent did in relation to the work you allege was infringed. The claim must provide enough information to enable each respondent to understand the claim and respond to it.

Alternatively, if you do not contend that Mr. Roque participated in the same course of allegedly infringing activity as America’s Real Estate Brokers, your second amended claim should omit him as a respondent unless you are detailed and clear about the allegations against Mr. Roque individually.

Final Amendment

Your amended claim resolved the compliance issue raised in the December 16, 2022 Order to Amend Noncompliant Claim. This order identifies an additional compliance issue regarding the allegations against Mr. Roque in your amended claim that also must be resolved. This is your third and final opportunity to submit a compliant claim in this proceeding. If your claim remains noncompliant, the entire proceeding will be dismissed. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

To submit a second amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps.

1. From your dashboard, click the “Amend claim” button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplementary documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the “Documentation” page. Please include only documents directly related to your claim, and label them clearly.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the “Review” page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select “Edit” to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an “Edit” button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click “Save & review” to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.

5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
