

COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD

Docket number: 24-CCB-0292

November 18, 2024

Nadine Hokayem

CLAIMANT

v.

Alex Brecher

RESPONDENT

ORDER DISMISSING CLAIM WITHOUT PREJUDICE

This claim was filed on October 3, 2024. On November 4, 2024, the Copyright Claims Board (Board) issued a Notice of Intent to Dismiss Claim noting that the Board would dismiss the claim on November 18, 2024, unless the claimant files a statement which either sufficiently argues that the underlying misrepresentation claim is different from the claim in 24-CCB-0096 or provides sufficient evidence of the respondent's agreement to resubmit the dispute. The claimant did not file a response. As a result, the Board dismisses this proceeding without prejudice and closes this case. While the claim is dismissed without prejudice, any future claims covering the same act and theories of recovery as in this proceeding, in 24-CCB-0096, or in 24-CCB-0216 will also be dismissed unless the claimant can demonstrate the respondent's affirmative agreement. This dismissal does not prevent the claimant from filing her claim in federal court.

Copyright Claims Board