RESPONDENT

ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board (Board) finds that your claim does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file an amended claim by June 30, 2025. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. If you file an amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. There is no additional filing fee for an amended claim. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

To make your amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1\(c\)\(2\). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your claim before you file it again. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your claim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your claim. There is no character limit, so please be as detailed as possible.

Relief

Your description in the “Describe the harm suffered and the relief sought” field includes a request for “actual damages totaling $17,000, which includes a fair license fee, a multiplier for willful unauthorized use, a penalty for the delay in removal, and compensation for the emotional and administrative burden caused by this violation.” The Board will not consider willfulness in making an award of statutory damages. 17 U.S.C. § 1504(e)(1)(A)(ii)(III). Similarly, the Board cannot award punitive damages or compensation for emotional harm. Nor will the Board award damages for “the cost of having to fight for respect and recognition.”

If you seek damages in an infringement claim, you can seek either (1) actual damages, and the respondent’s profits from the infringement, or (2) statutory damages. You can request both in your claim, but you will need to choose one of them before the Board issues a final determination. Actual damages are money damages awarded based on the proven harm or loss you suffered (similarly any profits of the alleged infringer must be directly attributable to the infringement). An example of actual damages may be the amount of lost sales revenue you experienced. Statutory damages are money damages awarded to a successful claimant within a range set by law, that the Board deems fair, without the need to provide proof of the actual amount of harm or loss.

To address this issue, you may file an amended claim that makes clear what you are asking for and does not allege that you are pursuing remedies from the CCB that it may not provide. For additional information please see page 6 of Starting an Infringement Claim and the Damages Chapter of the CCB Handbook.

To submit an amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps:

1. From your dashboard, click the “Amend claim” button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplemental documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the “Documentation” page. Please include only documents directly related to your claim, and label them clearly.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the “Review” page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select “Edit” to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an “Edit” button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click “Save & review” to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.
5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
