

COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD

DOCKET NO. 22-CCB-0218

United States Copyright Claims Board

Stephen C. Vanasco

CLAIMANT

V.

The Trump Organization

RESPONDENT

ORDER DISMISSING CLAIM WITHOUT PREJUDICE

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

On December 16, 2022, the Copyright Claims Board (Board) issued an Order to Amend Noncompliant Claim notifying the claimant that the claim did not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations and would be dismissed unless an amended claim was filed by January 16, 2023. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2). The Board emailed the claimant confirming that the deadline to file an amended claim was January 17, 2023 to account for the federal holiday on January 16.

No amended claim was filed in the time allowed. Accordingly, the Board dismisses this proceeding without prejudice and closes case 22-CCB-0218. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B). Dismissal without prejudice means the claimant may raise the allegations again by filing a new claim.

Date: January 18, 2023

Copyright Claims Board