ORDER DISMISSING CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board (Board) received a Notice of Settlement and Joint Request for Dismissal on November 27, 2023. The request asks the Board to dismiss this proceeding without prejudice and stated: “The parties further stipulate that, unless Claimant files a request to re-open or re-file the case by January 26, 2024, the dismissal shall be considered with prejudice.”

The Board grants the request and dismisses the claim without prejudice. 37 C.F.R. §§ 222.17(a)-(c) & 222.18(g)-(h). The Board also cancels the status conference scheduled for November 27, 2023 (initially scheduled for November 13, 2023) and all other scheduled events and deadlines except for the January 26, 2024 deadline in this proceeding. 37 C.F.R. § 222.11(d).

If Claimant does not file a request to re-open the claim by January 26, 2024, this dismissal will become and shall be deemed to be a dismissal with prejudice. 37 C.F.R. § 222.18(h). Dismissal without prejudice means the claimant may raise the allegations again by filing a new claim. Dismissal with prejudice means the claim cannot be filed again.

With this dismissal, the Board closes this case.
