Docket number: 24-CCB-0017

January 22, 2024

Kelly Green

CLAIMANT

v.

Brooke A. Graham

RESPONDENT

ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board finds that your claim does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file an amended claim by February 21, 2024. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. If you file an amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. There is no additional filing fee for an amended claim. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

To make your amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your claim before you file it again. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your claim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your claim. There is no character limit, so please be as detailed as possible.

Copyright Registration

The Board can only hear a copyright infringement claim if, before the claim was filed, (1) the Copyright Office issued a registration certificate for the copyrighted work or (2) the legal or beneficial owner of the copyright applied to register the copyright by delivering a completed application, deposit, and fee to the Copyright Office, and the Copyright Office has not refused the application. 17 U.S.C. § 1505(a). The claim must include the registration number for the allegedly infringed work or, if the Copyright Office has not registered the work, the service request number for a pending application to register the copyright. 37 C.F.R. §§ 221.1(b) & 222.2(c)(7)(ii)(C)-(D).

In the “Works infringed” section of your claim, you list two allegedly infringed works, titled “well lets talk about my sons claims and why he all of a sudden hates me/Juelz/Jy/Sly/Jayjay” and “the 3 stooges brown liquor brooke, temu teeth and momo are the only ones lying to everyone.” You describe each work as a “Youtube livestream and artwork.” You state that the Copyright Office has not registered the works and you provide 1-13413805450 and 1-13413805369, respectively, as the service request numbers for pending applications for registration of the works.

Copyright Office records for those applications indicate that the Office did not receive deposit copies of the works before this claim was filed on January 17, 2024. The deposit for 1-13413805450 was uploaded one day later, on January 18, 2024, and the Office has not yet received the deposit for 1-13413805369. The term “deposit” refers to the copy or copies of a work that must be submitted to the Copyright Office with an application for registration. Information about the deposit requirement for registration is available in Chapter 1500 of the Compendium of U.S. Copyright Office Practices, Third Edition.

The Board cannot hear this claim because deposit copies of the works were not delivered to the Copyright Office before this claim was filed. Because your works were neither registered nor subject to complete pending applications at that time, this claim cannot be successfully amended and cannot proceed. Instead, you would need to refile your infringement claim as a new claim in a new proceeding after complete application packets are filed. You should not submit a new claim alleging infringement of both works until after you submit the deposit for 1-13413805369, or submit a new application, deposit, and fee. For more information on registration, please refer to the Copyright Office Registration Portal.

Because your copyright infringement claim is based on works that do not appear to be covered by registrations or applications for registration completed before the claim, we have not reviewed the remainder of your claim to determine whether it complies in other respects with the legal and formal requirements for a claim before the Board. If you believe the above statements regarding your application are in error, you may submit an amended claim that shows that complete applications with the required deposit were submitted before you filed your January 17, 2024 claim. If you submit an amended claim that resolves the registration issue, the Board will engage in a full compliance review, so you should review the CCB Handbook, including the Starting an Infringement Claim chapter, and make sure the rest of your amended claim is compliant.

To submit an amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps:

1. From your dashboard, click the “Amend claim” button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplemental documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the “Documentation” page. Please include only documents directly related to your claim, and label them clearly.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the “Review” page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select “Edit” to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an “Edit” button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click “Save & review” to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.

5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
