Docket number: 23-CCB-0102

May 16, 2023

Amanda A Rogers

CLAIMANT

v.

Casey S Prengel

RESPONDENT

ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board finds that your claim does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file an amended claim by June 15, 2023. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. If you file an amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. There is no additional filing fee for an amended claim. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

To make your amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your claim before you file it again. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your claim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your claim. There is no character limit, so please be as detailed as possible.

Works Infringed– Clarity

Your claim includes unclear allegations about how many and which of your works were allegedly infringed. If it is not readily apparent from the claim and supplemental materials the number or type of works at issue, you must provide additional information about which of your works were infringed and how they were infringed by the respondent.

In your claim, you allege infringement of (1) a motion picture and audiovisual work and (2) one or more “Pictorial Graphic and Sculptural” works. Specifically, you allege that the respondent “screenshotted watermarked images from my onlyfans accounts then proceeded to direct message them to 2 of my close friends.” The supplemental documents that you have attached to your claim appear to consist of two “direct message” screenshots and one screen recording showing another “direct message” that includes several pictures. These appear to be or relate to the “direct messages” in your allegation. These supplemental documents include approximately five works which correspond to deposit copies in the registration applications.

If you want to include these five works in the claim, you must identify and list each work in the “Works infringed” section of the claim separately. You may include copies of your work and the allegedly infringing works as supplemental documents. If you do, they must be clearly labeled and identified so they can be properly compared to each other.

More information about the elements required to assert a claim of copyright infringement is available in the Starting an Infringement Claim chapter of the CCB Handbook.

To submit an amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps:

1. From your dashboard, click the “Amend claim” button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplemental documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the “Documentation” page. Please include only documents directly related to your claim, and label them clearly.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the “Review” page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select “Edit” to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an “Edit” button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click “Save & review” to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.
5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
