RESPONDENT

ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board finds that your claim does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file an amended claim by November 18, 2022. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. If you file an amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. There is no extra filing fee for an amended claim. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

To make your amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1\(c\)\(2\). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your claim before you file it again.

Copyright Infringement – Relief Sought

You have filed a claim for copyright infringement, and the “Description of harm suffered and relief sought” section of your claim states, “I am seeking statutory damages in the amount of $30,000.” You appear to be seeking a larger damages award than the Board can grant for this type of claim. The most that respondents can be ordered to pay in damages (actual or statutory) in a Board proceeding is $30,000. 17 U.S.C. § 1504(e)(1)(D). However, the maximum amount of statutory damages available from the Board is $15,000 for each of your works that was infringed. 17 U.S.C. § 1504(e)(1)(A)(ii)(I). Because you identify only one infringed work, it does not appear that the Board could award you more than $15,000 in statutory damages.

Copyright Infringement – Clarity

Your claim describes the allegedly infringed work as a “a Starbucks parody of a girl in a striped shirt crying while wearing a protest hat with the words Liberal Tears going around the logo” A supplemental document filed with the claim, with the filename EXHIBIT A - “Liberal Tears” Logo and Design.pdf, appears to be a copy of the allegedly infringed work, but it is not explicitly described as the allegedly infringed work. To address this issue, if you file an amended claim that includes copies of the works at issue as supplemental documents, they must be clearly labeled and identified so they can be properly compared to each other.

To submit an amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps.

1. From your dashboard, click the “Amend claim” button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplementary documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the “Documentation” page. Please include only documents that are directly related to your claim.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the “Review” page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select “Edit” to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an “Edit” button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click “Save & review” to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.
5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
