United States Copyright Claims Board

Scott Decker

CLAIMANT

v.

Kelly Souders, Carolyn G. Bernstein, and Brian Peterson

SECOND ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board finds that your claim, as amended, still does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is properly amended. If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file a second amended claim by December 12, 2022. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. There is no additional filing fee for a second amended claim. If you amend your claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. However, if your second amended claim also is found not to comply, the Board will dismiss the proceeding without prejudice. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B), 37 C.F.R. § 224.1\(d\).

To make your second amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1\(c\)\(2\). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your amended claim before you file a second amended claim. For example, you sent an email to the Board on October 3, 2022, stating that when you filed the amended claim, “I was not finished entering all the examples of infringement[.]” You may add more facts in the “Describe the infringement” section of the second amended claim. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your claim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your claim. There is no character limit so please be as detailed as possible.

Copyright Infringement Claim – Infringing Activity

Your amended claim does not state enough facts to support a copyright infringement claim against one of the respondents, Carolyn G. Bernstein. The “Describe the infringement” section describes allegedly infringing scripts written by the other two respondents, but your allegations do not mention Ms. Bernstein and do not make clear how she engaged in any allegedly infringing activity. To address this issue, if you file a second amended claim against Ms. Bernstein, it must include specific facts that provide a basis for raising the claim against her personally. In the alternative, you may file a second amended claim that does not include Ms. Bernstein as a respondent.

Final Amendment

Your amended claim resolves some, but not all, of the issues raised in the September 16, 2022 noncompliance order. If you file a second amended claim, it must state enough facts in support of the claim alleged. This is your third and final opportunity to submit a compliant claim in this proceeding. If you raise any claims that your allegations do not support, the entire proceeding will be dismissed. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B). In the alternative, you can delete any unsupported allegations in your second amended claim.

To submit a second amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps.

1. From your dashboard, click the “Amend claim” button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If your claim included supplementary documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the “Documentation” page. Please include only documents that are directly related to your claim.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the “Review” page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select “Edit” to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an “Edit” button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click “Save & review” to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.
5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
