

United States Copyright Claims Board

Chad E Robertson

CLAIMANT

v.

Benjamin Astle

RESPONDENT

ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board finds that your claim does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file an amended claim by November 17, 2022. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. If you file an amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. There is no extra filing fee for an amended claim. 17 U.S.C. § 1506\(f\)\(1\)\(B\).

To make your amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1\(c\)\(2\). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your claim before you file it again.

Copyright Infringement Claim – Registration

The Board can only hear a copyright infringement claim if, before the claim was filed, (1) the Copyright Office issued a registration certificate for the copyrighted work or (2) the legal or beneficial owner of the copyright applied to register the copyright by delivering a completed application, deposit, and fee to the Copyright Office, and the Copyright Office has not refused the application. 17 U.S.C. § 1505(a).

In your claim, you state that the work is not registered and you do not provide a valid service request number for a pending application. To address this issue, if you file an amended claim, please provide the registration number for the work or the service request number for the application to register the work.

Either the registration must have been issued or the application must have been delivered to the Copyright Office before you filed your claim on October 3, 2022. If your work was neither registered nor subject to a pending application at that time, this claim cannot be successfully amended and cannot proceed. Instead, you would need to apply to register the copyright for the allegedly infringed work before you could refile your claim as a new claim. For more information on registration, please refer to the Copyright Office Registration Portal.

Because you have filed a copyright infringement claim that does not appear to be based on a work covered by a registration or pending application for registration, we have not reviewed the remainder of your claim to determine whether it complies in other respects with the legal and formal requirements for a claim before the Board. If you submit an amended claim that resolves the registration issue, the Board will engage in a full compliance review, so you should review the CCB Handbook and make sure the rest of your amended claim is compliant.

Respondent Information – Address

When you submitted your application, you checked the box that the respondent's address was unknown at the time but you had a good faith belief that the Copyright Act's three-year statute of limitations for your claim was likely to expire within 30 days of the date you filed the claim. You affirmed that you would provide the address within sixty days of filing, or December 2, 2022. Please note the claim will only be able to move forward if the respondent resides in the United States, so you must provide a U.S. address. This date may not be extended. You may include this address when you submit your amended claim. Note that even if your claim is eventually found compliant and you provide a U.S. address for the respondent, the Board may still order you in the future to provide your basis for affirming that you had a "good faith belief" that the three-year statute of limitations was about to expire when you filed your claim.

To submit an amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps.

1. From your dashboard, click the "Amend claim" button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If your claim included supplementary documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the "Documentation" page. Please include only documents that are directly related to your claim.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the "Review" page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select "Edit" to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an "Edit" button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click "Save & review" to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.
5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
