CLAIMANT

v.

Wes Supply LLC and Bobbie Thompson

RESPONDENT

ORDER DISMISSING CLAIM AND FINDING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE MOOT

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

On March 14, 2023, the Copyright Claims Board (Board) issued an Order to Amend Noncompliant Claim notifying the claimant that the claim did not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations and would be dismissed unless an amended claim was filed by April 13, 2023. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2).

No amended claim was filed in the time allowed. Accordingly, the Board dismisses this proceeding without prejudice and closes case 23-CCB-0058. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B). Dismissal without prejudice means the claimant may raise the allegations again by filing a new claim.

The Board also filed an Order to Show Cause on March 14, 2023. Because the Board is dismissing this claim based on the failure to file an amended claim, the Board need not take any action on the Order to Show Cause as it is moot.
