ORDER DISMISSING CLAIM WITHOUT PREJUDICE

On March 14, 2023, the Copyright Claims Board (Board) issued an Order to Amend Noncompliant Claim notifying the claimant that the claim did not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations and would be dismissed unless an amended claim was filed by April 13, 2023. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2).

Claimant filed a Response to Amend Noncompliant Claim. 23-CCB-0033 on April 14, 2023, past the deadline. Accordingly, the Board dismisses this proceeding without prejudice and closes case 23-CCB-0033. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B). Dismissal without prejudice means the claimant may raise the allegations against by filing a new claim.
