

COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD

Docket number: 24-CCB-0044
February 29, 2024

Smart Protection Ltd
CLAIMANT

v.

Benjamin Katz
RESPONDENT

ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board finds that your claim does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file an amended claim by April 1, 2024. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. If you file an amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. There is no additional filing fee for an amended claim. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

To make your amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your claim before you file it again. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your claim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your claim. There is no character limit, so please be as detailed as possible.

Foreign Respondent

The Board cannot hear a claim asserted against a person or entity residing outside the United States. 17 U.S.C. § 1504(d)(4). The claim must include the respondent's address. 37 C.F.R. § 222.2(c)(6). Your allegations indicate that you have not complied with these requirements.

In the "Respondent" section of your claim, you list your authorized representative (Benjamin Katz) as the respondent and give your address as the respondent's mailing address. However, in the "Who sent the counter notice(s)?" and "Words that made up the misrepresentation and explanation of the misrepresentation" sections of the claim you list a name (Aleksander Jono) and a mailing address in "Barcelona, Spain." This indicates that the actual respondent is (1) not the respondent named in the claim and (2) not located in the United States.

Because the respondent appears to be a foreign resident, and because you have not provided a valid address, we have not reviewed the remainder of your claim to determine whether it complies in other respects with the legal and formal requirements for a claim before the Board. If you submit an amended claim with a valid address for a respondent who is a United States resident, the Board will engage in a full compliance review, so you should review the CCB Handbook and make sure the rest of your amended claim is compliant. You should only amend your claim if you are raising it against an individual or entity residing in the United States for whom you provide a valid mailing address.

To submit an amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps:

1. From your dashboard, click the “Amend claim” button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplemental documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the “Documentation” page. Please include only documents directly related to your claim, and label them clearly.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the “Review” page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select “Edit” to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an “Edit” button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click “Save & review” to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.
5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the “Digital signature” box near the bottom of the “Review filing” page and click “Agree & submit.”
